

AWEA Wind Workforce Standards Committee Membership Application

How to apply:

Email: Standards Development, standards@awea.org
Fax: 202.293.2505
Mail: American Wind Energy Association
Attn: AWEA Standards Development
1501 M Street NW, Suite 900
Washington, DC 20005

Contact Information (please complete all fields)

Organization Name		Date
Phone (Main Number)		Fax
Street Address	City and State / Province	Zip / Postal Code	Country
Representative Name		Job Title
Email	Phone (Direct)
Alternate Name		Job Title
Email	Phone (Direct)

Membership Category (Please select the one (1) category that best fits your company)

- Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) – Members representing manufacturers of components, supply chain manufacturers, or original equipment manufacturer.
- Independent Service Providers (ISP) – Members representing employers of wind turbine technicians who are independent of an OEM or Owner Operator.
- Owner Operator - Self Performed – Members representing an organization(s), company or companies that will be responsible for the development, management of operations, and/or ownership interest in a wind energy project or plant who employ wind turbine technicians for the purpose of maintaining a wind project.
- Owner Operator - Contractor Performed – Members representing an organization(s) or company or companies that will be responsible for the development, management of operations and/or ownership interest in a wind energy project or plant who do not employ wind turbine technicians for the purpose of maintaining a wind project.
- Training/Education – Members representing, colleges, trade schools, or other entities whose primary purpose is training and education.
- Subject-Matter Expert (SME)/Research and development (R&D)/Consultants – Members representing organizations or companies that provide consultants, engineers, architects, inspection and testing firms, each providing advice, information, and services for the wind industry and organizations that represent any of the above.
- General Interest – All other organizations if these are not otherwise classified within another specific category and individuals with a demonstrated interest or expertise in wind industry standards and not classified in any of the other categories. Organizations will be requested to describe their type of organization, examples include trucking or transportation companies.

Experience and Qualifications

1. Provide an explanation of your general knowledge and competence in the scope (work) of the AWEA Wind Workforce Standards Committee:

2. What perspective will you be able to provide to the AWEA Wind Workforce Standards Committee:

3. Other relevant activities that should be considered in evaluating this application:

4. Please submit a resume, if one is available, detailing your work history, experience, and education.

5. If you selected, technical, consultants, or general interest membership categories, please provide additional information in your area of expertise or experience:

Is your company affiliated with an existing member company on the WSC? Yes/No If yes, please state the company name and the nature of the affiliation.

Membership Responsibilities and Policies

I, the undersigned, acknowledge that my membership in the AWEA Wind Standard Committee is subject to compliance with the following policies and procedures: Code of Ethics, Ground Rules, Patent Policy, Standard Development Procedures and ANSI's Essential Requirements for patent policy information, and that this application becomes a binding agreement upon acceptance by AWEA and is subject to the terms and conditions that constitute a part of, or are included in, this application. In addition, I understand that membership responsibilities include volunteering to help draft requirements, if the requirements are in the committee member's field of expertise.

Signature

Year